The Power of the Cross #197

Oh, to see the dawn of the darkest day: Christ on the road to Calvary. Tried by sinful men, torn and beaten, then nailed to a cross of wood. This the power of the cross: Christ became sin for us. Took the blame, bore the wrath; we stand forgiven at the cross!

Oh, to see the pain written on Your face, bearing the awesome weight of sin. Every sinful thought, every evil deed crowning Your blood-stained brow. This the power of the cross: Christ became sin for us. Took the blame, bore the wrath; we stand forgiven at the cross!

Now the daylight flees; now the ground beneath quakes as its Maker bows His head. Curtain torn in two; dead are raised to life; "Finished!" the victory cry. This the power of the cross: Christ became sin for us. Took the blame, bore the wrath; we stand forgiven at the cross!

Oh, to see my name written in the wounds, for through Your suffering I am free! Death is crushed to death; life is mine to live, won through Your selfless love! This the power of the cross: Son of God, slain for us. What a love, what a cost—we stand forgiven at the cross!

Come, Behold the Wondrous Mystery

Come, behold the wondrous mystery, in the dawning of the King. He the theme of heaven's praises, robed in frail humanity. In our longing, in our darkness, now the light of life has come! Look to Christ who condescended, took on flesh to ransom us.

Come, behold the wondrous mystery, He the perfect Son of Man. In His living, in His suffering, never trace or stain of sin. See the true and better Adam, come to save the hell-bound man. Christ, the great and sure fulfillment of the law; in Him we stand.

Come, behold the wondrous mystery, Christ the Lord upon the tree. In the stead of ruined sinners hangs the Lamb in victory. See the price of our redemption, see the Father's plan unfold. Bringing many sons to glory, grace unmeasured, love untold.

Come, behold the wondrous mystery, slain by death the God of life. But no grave could e'er restrain Him; praise the Lord; He is alive! What a foretaste of deliv'rance, how unwavering our hope. Christ in power resurrected as we will be when He comes.

His Mercy is More #221

What love could remember no wrongs we have done? Omniscient all knowing He counts not their sum. Thrown into a sea without bottom or shore. Our sins they are many His mercy is more. Praise the Lord, His mercy is more. Stronger than darkness, new every morn; our sins, they are many—His mercy is more.

What patience would wait as we constantly roam? What Father so tender is calling us home? He welcomes the weakest, the vilest, the poor. Our sins they are many His mercy is more. Praise the Lord, His mercy is more. Stronger than darkness, new every morn; our sins, they are many—His mercy is more.

What riches of kindness He lavished on us. His blood was the payment, His life was the cost. We stood 'neath a debt we could never afford. Our sins they are many His mercy is more. Praise the Lord, His mercy is more. Stronger than darkness, new every morn; our sins, they are many—His mercy is more.
