Text: Romans 4:17-25

Theme: Justified by faith alone (cf. 5:1)

- I) Abraham, an _____ that justification is by faith, believed the promises of God (17-21).
 - A. God promised to make Abraham a _____ of many nations (17).
 - B. God was the _____ of his faith (17).
 - 1. Abraham knew that God gives life to the dead (17). In fact, when God asks Abraham to offer Isaac on the altar, Abraham believed that God would raise him from the dead (cf. Heb. 11:19).
 - 2. Abraham knew that God creates life where there is no life (17). The book of Genesis begins with God creating out of nothing.
 - C. He believed even though the situation seemed _____ (18-21).
- II) Abraham's justification by faith was not _____ for his sake (22-25).
 - A. This declaration of Abraham's justification was also for _____ benefit (22-23).
 - B. Abraham _____ the stars and believed God (Gen. 15:5-6); we believe God raised Jesus from the dead (24-25).
 - 1. Faith is not blind. Faith latches on to an objective proof. There is no greater proof that Christ's death atoned for our sins than the resurrection of Jesus Christ. The resurrection is proof that the Father's wrath was satisfied at the cross.
