Text: Jeremiah 33:1-26

Theme: The Lord of Hosts has spoken, listen carefully.

- I) From His covenant with creation to His covenant with individuals, God will _____ His good word (1-26; note v. 14).
- A. God will fulfill His good word to _____ (1-13; cf. 30:24).
1. The word “mighty” is generally translated in the OT as fortified (3; cf. Deut. 3:5). These words from God are like a fortified city—they are inaccessible like a fortified city—but God will reveal them.
- B. God will fulfill His good word to _____ (14-26).
1. Jeremiah has just prophesied that Nebuchadnezzar will carry off Zedekiah to Babylon (32:5). It seems like the line of David is in danger of being cut off. Yet, God will cause a Righteous Branch to spring forth from the line of David (15). This Righteous Branch is none other than Christ.
- C. God will fulfill His good word to _____ (18, 21-22).
1. The covenant with Levi is even more suspect than the covenant with David. Hebrews 7:12-14 explicitly states that Jesus does not come from the Levitical line, instead He is a priest after a different order—Melchizedek.

Conclusion: God’s word will be fulfilled. He is always faithful to His covenant promises. One of God’s good promises to New Covenant believers is that we can enter into the Holy Place by the blood of Jesus and have direct access to God (Heb. 10:19-25). Therefore, let us draw near!
