Romans 15:1-16:27

Romans 15:13

Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you will abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Day 1

Read: Romans 15:1-13

Introduction: David, in Psalm 69:9, says that the reproaches that were meant for God were cast at him. Perhaps David is thinking about Goliath's words of insult (1 Sam. 17:43). So how can Paul say that these words were written concerning Christ? Because David was a pattern pointing to Christ.

1. Those who have a strong conscience ought to bear the _____ of others (1).
2. What ought to motivate us to please our neighbor regarding conscience issues (2-3)?
3. Why should we accept one another, even though we have consciences that differ (7)?

Day 6

Read: Romans 16:25-27

Introduction: Notice the role that the preaching of Jesus Christ has in establishing believers (25). We may be tempted to think that preaching is an outdated method, but God has chosen this method to establish believers in the faith. Take a moment and consider how you listen to the preaching of God's Word. Do you believe that God uses this method to establish your faith?

1. What has been manifested or revealed (26)?
2. What is the result of this mystery that has been revealed (26)?
3. Who deserves the glory for this Good News (27)?

Day 5

Read: Romans 16:17-24

Introduction: Just like the church at Rome, there will always be some who try to cause dissensions (17). How do you know if those dissensions are contrary to scripture? Often, these people will reference other teachers rather than the Word of God. When they do this, scripture says that you should turn away from them.

1. Those who cause dissensions that are contrary to scripture are actually serving their own _____ (18).
2. Why does Paul rejoice (19)?
3. What does the God of peace do to Satan (20)?

Day 2

Read: Romans 15:14-21

Introduction: These believers in Rome are ministering the Gospel as priests (16). During the Old Testament, only the Levitical Priests could make sacrifices for the people. But under the New Covenant, all believers have direct access to God.

1. What did Paul want to remind these Roman believers to do (15-16)?
2. Paul does not speak of anything except what _____ has done through him (18).
3. Why did Paul not want to preach where Christ was already named (20)?

Day 3

Read: Romans 15:22-33

Introduction: Paul had a desire to visit the church in Rome (23), but did not have the opportunity. In fact, he knew that when he comes, it would be right when God wanted him to (29). Often, God's timing is not the same as our timing. But let us humbly wait for God.

1. When someone ministers spiritually on your behalf, you ought to minister _____ things (27).
2. What was something that Paul wanted them to do on his behalf (30)?

Day 4

Read: Romans 16:1-16

Introduction: Phoebe, who was a servant in the church at Cenchrea, had moved to Rome. So, Paul encouraged those who were at the church of Rome to receive her in the Lord. We struggle with the same problem. Have you seen this happen? Someone visits your church, but they have a hard time fitting in. We ought to be intentional about receiving other believers in the Lord.

1. List 2 examples of ways that you can receive another believer who visits your church.
